

REMARKS

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 between Group I, as illustrated in figure 1A and 1B, drawn to a hand held computing device comprising a case, display and lid, the lid having a transparent portion wherein a user input device is physically accessible when the lid is in a closed state (Claims 1-24); and Group II, as illustrated in figure 3B and 6A, drawn to a hand held computing device characterized by a keyboard comprising keys arranged in a QWERTY arrangement (Claims 25-111).

Applicants elect, without traverse, to prosecute in this patent application the subject matter of Group II (Claims 25-111). The Applicants cancel, without prejudice, the claims in Group I (Claims 1-24). Applicants reserve the right to introduce the subject matter of Group I in this or a separate continuation or divisional application.

Favorable action is solicited.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeffrey C. Hawkins, Peter Skillman,
William B. Rees and Robert Y. Haitani
